It's a Big Wide Wonderful World

It's a world of laughter;

It's a world of fun;

It's a world of study and work well-done.

It's a world of
variety, opportunity, vitality;

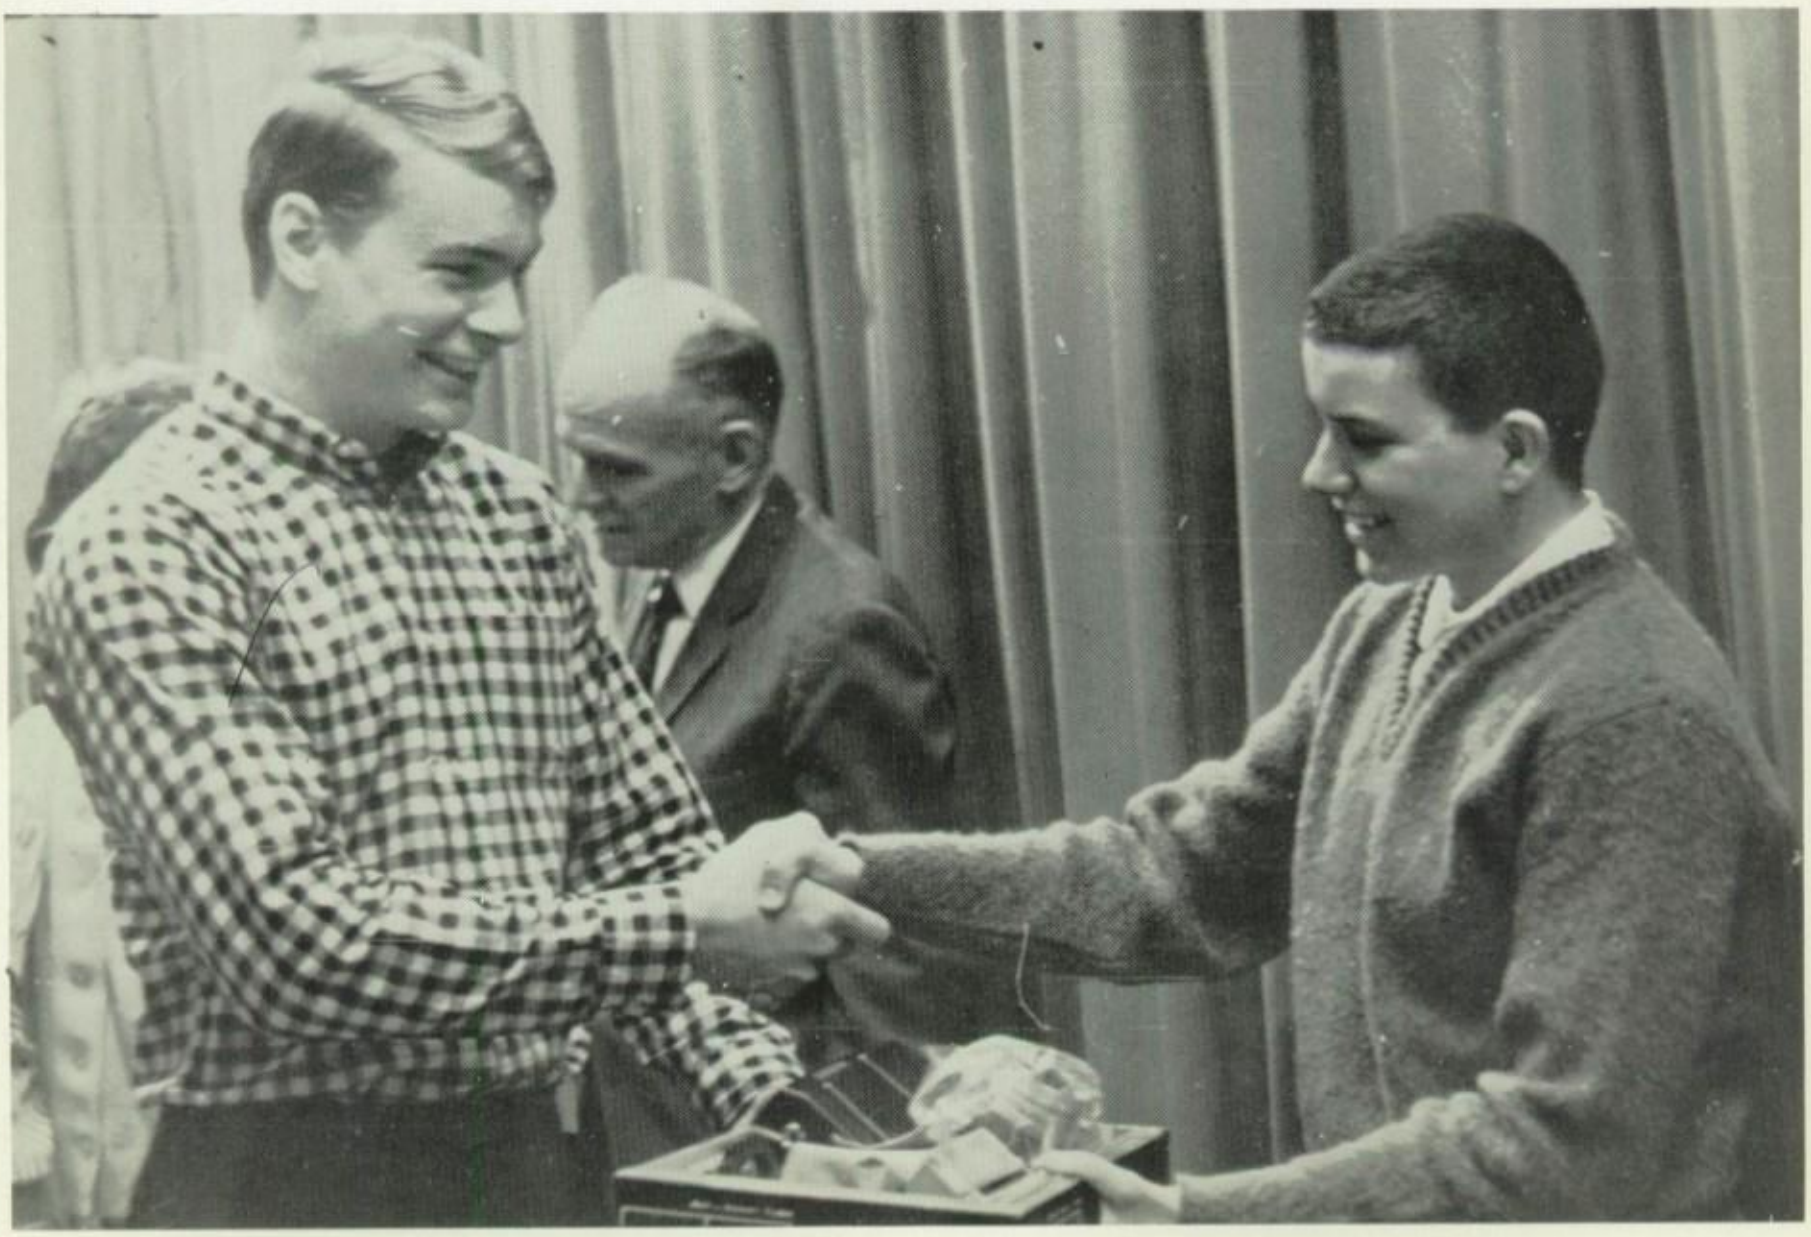
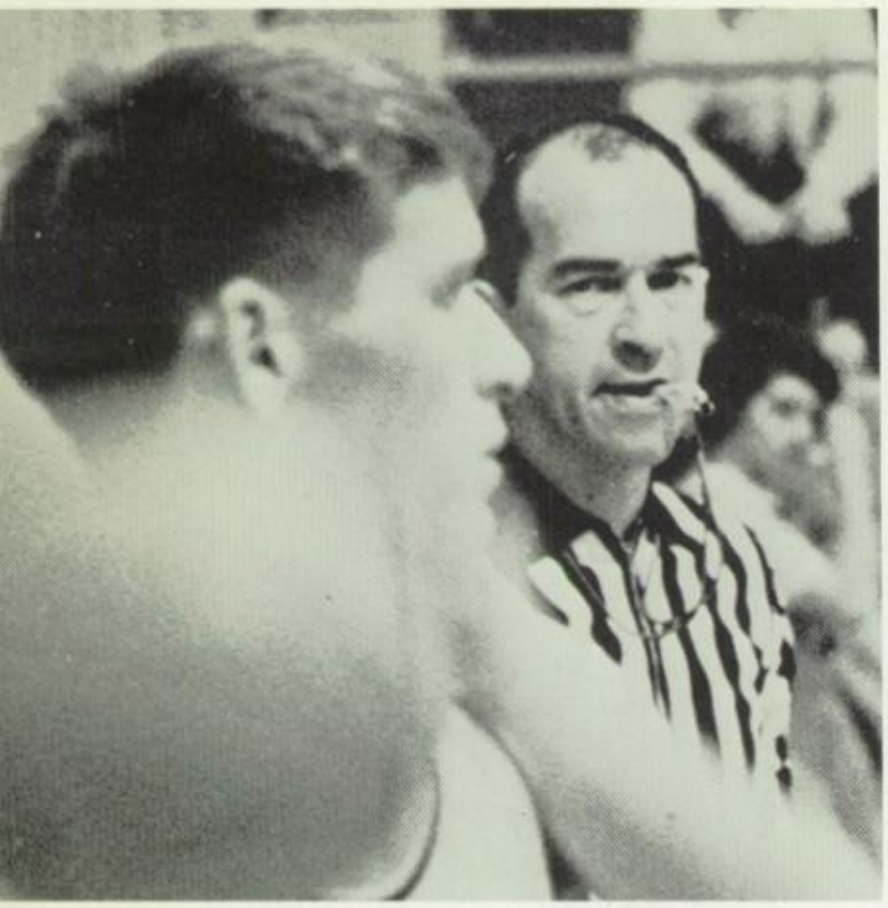
It's a world of everlasting friendships and great personalities.



It's a world of sports, music and dance;
It's a world of girls, boys, and gay romance.



It's a world of
surprises, disappointments, and tears;

It's a world to be lived in for all of us here.

It's a world to be lived in for another great year!

Faculty

The teacher is often regarded as one who merely administers tests, delivers lectures and gives out homework assignments. Yet this is only scratching the surface of the tremendous responsibilities bestowed on our teachers and administrators. By their examples they set high ideals for us to attain. By their instruction, encouragement, and also criticism, they daily mold our very characters and guide us through the trials of teen-age life. They are always there to reassure us, their firm hands constantly present to direct our activities, enthusiasms, and hopes.

C. M. Johnson, Superintendent

Mr. Johnson directs our efforts for improved education

The burden of responsibility for administrating the Canfield School District rests largely on the shoulders of our superintendent, Mr. C. M. Johnson. He is the supervisor and overseer of the many functions of our school, from planning the school day to hiring the personnel. Mr. Johnson is the one to whom everyone turns for the final decision in important matters. No one doubts his ability to carry out his duties, for Mr. Johnson has served for the past thirty years in the role of educator.

Although incapacitated by a heart attack in the spring of 1964, Mr. Johnson returned to his duties when school resumed last fall. We owe to him a great deal of thanks for the passage of the school bond levy, making it possible for a new high school to be built in the near future.

To all who pass through the halls of Canfield, Mr. Johnson will be remembered as a man who gave his time to help improve our education.

Dedicated men supervise school affairs

While we are busy in our classrooms, so our principals, E. E. Francis and Donald Bishop, are busy in their offices ironing out the many problems that occur in the normal school routine. These men are main overseers in planning the school's curriculum and extracurricular activities. Mr. Bishop is well known for his morning announcements and Mr. Francis for his able guidance in planning for the student's welfare. It would be hard to imagine a day at C H S without either of these two dedicated men.

The School Board, consisting of a group of men elected by the people of the community, have the important task of controlling the funds and the projects of the school. This past year they have been very busy with the passage of the school bond levy and the granting of contracts for the actual building of the new high school. Without the efforts of these men, the internal smooth-running of the school could not be maintained.

Myron Leonard; Charles B l u n t, vice-president; John Rodgers; Howard Clay; C. M. Johnson; Halden Booth; center, Dr. C. K. Walter, president.

School Board members sign the contract for the new high school.

Personnel maintain an efficiently-run school.

Performing the many and varied tasks essential to a smooth-running school are Canfield High School's personnel. Their jobs range from furnishing transportation and doing clerical work to preparing meals and maintaining the attractive appearance of our school. These services are necessary to the welfare of the Canfield students and are greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Audrey Arnold, our school nurse, takes a break from her daily chore of treating students' aches and pains.

Underclassmen

Along with the faculty, underclassmen also play a significant role in the activities of CHS. While the underclassmen look to the seniors and faculty for leadership, they in turn are looked upon for support. Being an underclassman is more than just marking time waiting to become a senior; it is the discovery and broadening of new interests.

Seventh and eighth grade students first encounter the disparity between grade school and Junior High. Freshmen recognize the challenge of high school, sophomores bask in the sunlight of their name "wise fools," and Juniors await with bated breath the glory of seniority.

TO JERRY

"In the cold moist earth we laid him
When the forest cast the leaf"
And we wept that one so "youthful"
Should have a life so brief."

Now grief is great, but as I think
Of all my Hopes, and Mankind's Aims,
I remember there is a God above
Only He can give, only He can claim.

So sail beyond the sunset and the stars
'Tis not too late to seek a newer world,
And strive, and seek, and find—never yield
You'll find all God's works unfurled.

Let the Heaven's blaze forth your coming,
Let God's angels lead the way,
To His home, high in the sky
For we'll meet again someday.

A friend has gone to a better land
Of love, not grief or sorrow,
And who can say, but that we may
Just meet you there tomorrow.

Activities

Extracurricular activities play a significant role in the program of CHS. There is an activity designed to meet the particular interest of every student. There are clubs relating to the theater arts, photography, art, and language. A student interested in journalism, teaching and oratory also finds an organization relating to his special interest. Service organizations, honor clubs and student government also play a large role in the extracurricular activities of Canfield.

Student Council Renovates Honor Point System

As representative body of the high school, the Student Council performs many tasks. Among these are sponsoring hops and assemblies. Also the Student Council sponsored an inner-class track meet, won by the sophomores. A re-evaluation of the honor point system was also a major project of the council.

The annual Honor Assembly, held on May 14, is sponsored by the Student Council. The purpose of this assembly is to recognize those students making outstanding scholastic and creative achievements. To the students acquiring eighty service points an honor letter was awarded. The bar letter was awarded to the five students who earned the necessary one hundred sixty points. Senior honor students having attained forty-nine grade points were given the silver key. Also, Jim Eastman, next year's Student Council president, was announced and congratulated by past president, Tom James.

NHS Initiates Tutoring Service

At the spring induction both juniors and seniors were inducted into the National Honor Society. Those inducted must possess the qualities of scholarship, leadership, character, and service. Besides sponsoring junior high hops, many of the members tutored underclassmen during their study halls. This service was appreciated by both students and teachers alike who benefited from the time given by the NHS members.

Top-Knotter Designs Own Cover for First Time

Recording a summary of life at Canfield High School is the main function of the Top-Knotter Staff. The members that type, write copy, take photographs, plan layouts and sales campaigns spend long hours after school carrying out their respective duties. Under the direction of Mrs. Linda Sarbo and Mr. Donald Bishop, advisors, the staff strives to meet that deadline in order to produce the best yearbook possible for the students and community.

Cardinal Staff Edits Bi-Weekly Newspaper

The hard-working Cardinal Staff's main objective is to meet that impending deadline. The editors, typists, reporters, artists and mimeographers are ever aware of its nearness. These staff members were rewarded for their long hours of service when the Cardinal received the Northeastern Ohio Scholastic Press Association award for second place in the duplicated newspaper division. The sixteen issues of the newspaper are evidence of the time and effort that compose the Cardinal.

American Field Service Highlights School Year by Sending First Canfield Student Abroad

"Walk together, talk together, all ye people of the earth. Then and only then shall you be free." This is the motto of the American Field Service, and this year more than any previous year, the Canfield AFS chapter has fulfilled this motto. AFSers, under the direction of Mrs. Ellen Neff, worked many cold hours during the Christmas tree sale to make the necessary $700 to bring Danny de la Paz to Canfield from the Philippines. Highlighting AFS's year was the letter from AFS New York saying that Tim Williams has been chosen as an American Exchange Student. The goal which AFS had sought to attain for five years had been reached—a CHS student would be going to a foreign nation for a year of study.

Spanish Club Is Initiated

The Spanish Club, under the direction of Mr. Frank Fisher, had a very successful first year. The club is organized to promote interest in Latin-American customs and the people of the Spanish-speaking countries. Each meeting opened with some type of Spanish food to eat, while the many programs consisted of interesting speakers and discussions.

The Thespian Troup Journeys to New York City

Thespians arrive in New York and enjoy the sights of the city.

Active participation in all phases of the dramatic and theatre arts enables students to gain membership in the National Thespian Society. Troupe #1183 is sponsored by Mr. James Wilhide. Among many services rendered to the performing arts, this organization has furnished ushers for all of the productions throughout the season at the Youngstown Playhouse. A trip to New York City highlighted the activities for this year. The thespians maintained a hectic schedule as they saw the sights of the city and attended Broadway plays.

Dramatics Club Creates Enthusiasm in the Field of Drama

The visits of the Dramatics Club to Kent State and the Youngstown Playhouse stressed participation in the many phases of the dramatic arts. The Canfield Auditorium became a movie theater many times as the Dramatics Club sponsored such films as "The Ugly American" and the "Flower Drum Song."

The presentation of the annual one-act play festival highlighted the year for the Dramatics Club. Under Mr. Wilhide's direction, "Overtones," "Judgment Morning," and "The Romancers," were a huge success.

Key Club Emphasizes Service to Canfield

The Key Club proved to be valuable to Canfield High School. Under the leadership of Mr. William Lester, the Key Club helped take down chairs, clean up the school, and aid in the clean, up-paint, up-fix up project in Canfield.

Key Club members also attended many out of town conventions.

Hi-Y Serves School and Community.

This year the Canfield Hi-Y, advised by Mr. Richard Taaffe, again emphasized its service to Canfield in such activities as selling popcorn at the home football games and operating the coat check at the basketball games. Many senior members participated in the annual Civics Day Program in March. Other members participated in the Annual Ohio Youth in Government program. In keeping with the club's tradition of service, the Hi-Y provided two scholarships to deserving graduating seniors.

Tri-Hi-Y Completes Another Year of Service

This year's Tri-Hi-Y, under the advisorship of Mrs. Wanda Weimer, was composed of sixty junior and senior girls. Members presented the morning devotions and the Thanksgiving and Easter assemblies. A dance, making dolls for needy children, and the jingle bell tradition highlighted their Christmas season. Spring knits and fashions were modeled for members and their parents. Many senior girls also participated in the annual Civics Day program. The Tri-Hi-Y concluded the year with a dinner for all graduating senior members.

Future Teachers Explore the Field of Teaching

Rifle Club Represented by Two Teams

Recently Canfield has come out as a great power in riflery. This year Canfield divided the squad into two parts —the regular team, and the junior sportsmanship team composed of the younger members. The junior team defeated many of the varsity teams from larger schools. The varsity also defeated many of the schools which have had teams for many years. Only three rifle team members were seniors: Harold Waller, Harry Musser, and Rich Thorndell. Many of the best shooters were underclassmen.

With the supervision of Mr. Edwin Nass and Mr. Ed Enterline who coached the younger members, the rifle team at Canfield has a great future.

Camera Club Members Learn Photography Techniques

With the assistance of Mr. Donald Bishop the members of the Camera Club learn the techniques of taking and developing pictures and other skills related to the art of photography. Pictures supporting the school bond levy, pictures printed in the football and basketball programs and pictures used in the Top-Knotter are visible proof of the work of the Camera Club members.

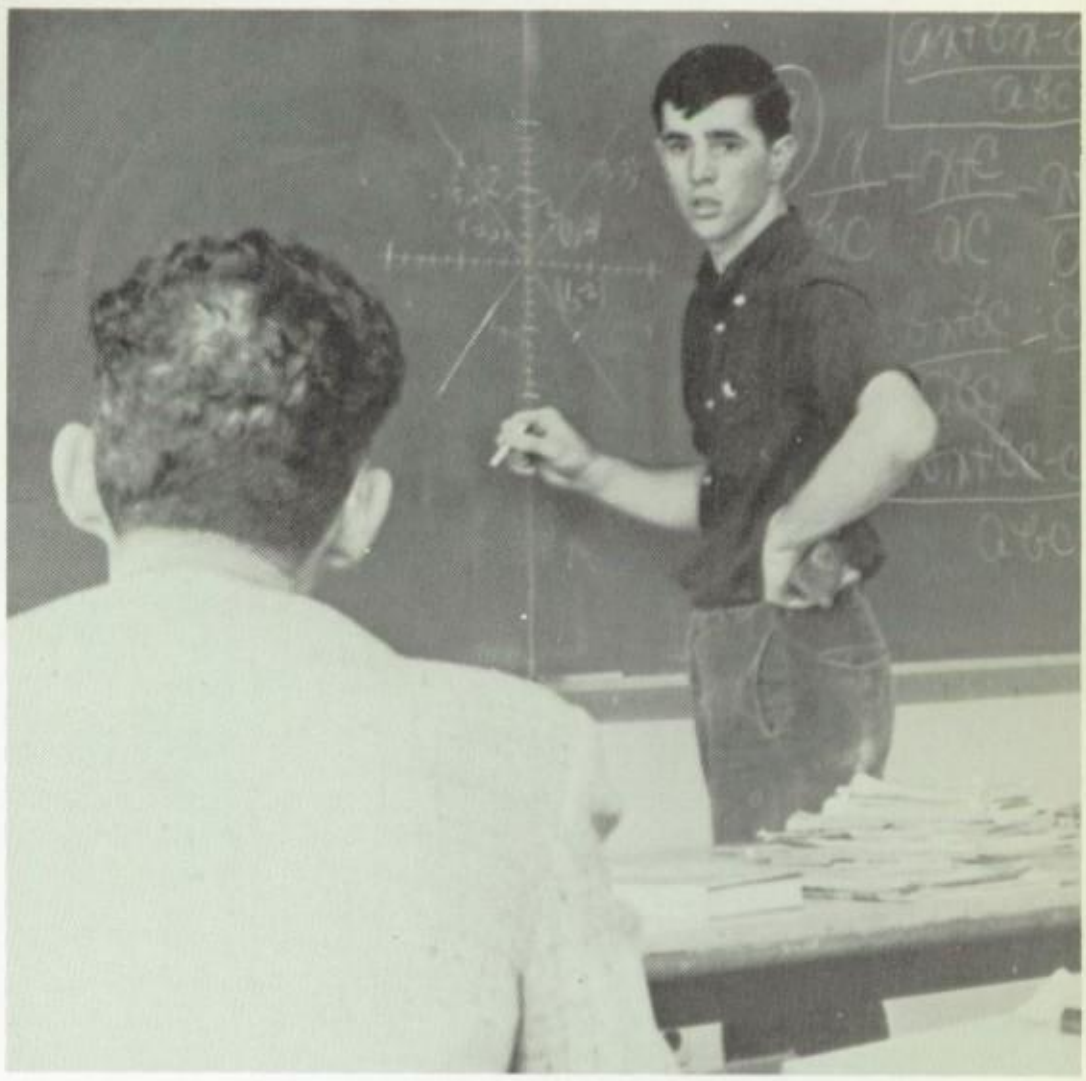
The Pep Club Arouses School Enthusiasm

For the second successful year, the Canfield Pep Club cheered the football and basketball teams on to victory. During many long hours of after school practice, Mrs. Pollock directed over eighty sophomore, junior, and senior girls. Forming the traditional "C" at home basketball games, these girls lead in cheers, songs, and half-time performances. Red, blue, and green sweatshirts were sold by the Club to promote the school spirit. The Club honored all senior members who had perfect attendance during the season by giving them white mums.

Row captains plan drills for half-time performances.

Scholarship Team Travels to Fitch High School



The Scholarship Team consists of those students who place first, second, or third in each subject in the Preliminary District-State Scholarship test. These students representing Canfield journeyed to Fitch High School on May 1 to compete with students in other area schools in the Final District-State Scholarship test.

Members and advisor, Mr. Kendall, review strategy for an upcoming debate.

Our debate team, coached by Mr. Ronald Kendall, lived up to the debaters' high standards by completing another successful year. The task of developing reasoning power, clear thinking, poise, and self-confidence kept C.H.S. debaters busy this year. This season all of the hard work and strong efforts were rewarded. Placing in tournaments at South, Canfield, Ursuline, and East resulted in the best season in the club's short history. At the district tournament, the "A" team tied for first place which earned them a journey to Columbus for the State Tournament, thus ending a very successful season.

Students Participating in Individual Events Bring Honors to the School

Entering its second year of competition, the Individual Events Team, coached by Mrs. Dolores Hall, sent representatives to area schools for competition. During the season many speakers won trophies and placed high in contests. From these contests representatives were selected and sent to the district contest at Ursaline High School. In this competition Suzanne Rowan placed third in dramatic declamation and Ann Davis placed first in the girls' extemporaneous division. Both competed in State contests in Columbus.

The team wound up their season with a dessert banquet with the debate team. Here, the coaches took over the program and presented a skit for the team members.

The Projection Club Provides Service to School

A teacher wanting to use any visual aid during a period merely has to send a note to the projection room and a boy will promptly be sent up with the requested equipment. There are two or three boys in the projection room every period who make it possible for teachers to supplement their instruction with movies, tapes, or film strips. This group, advised by Mr. Donald Bishop, efficiently performs a valuable service to CHS.

Junior Class Presents "Arsenic and Old Lace"

The activities of two lethal, old ladies who had charity in their hearts and cadavers in the basement presented a hilarious situation in this year's junior class play, "Arsenic and Old Lace". The presentation, directed by Mr. James Wilhide, was very successful due to a united effort on the part of the members of the junior class. The play was presented on November 13-14 and drew the largest attendance on record.

This year the Canfield High School Band was under the direction of Mr. Paul Rossi. Seventy-four students participated in the numerous activities undertaken by the band. Summer practice sessions prepared the band members for the annual performance at the Canfield Fair. Band enthusiasm and half-time shows were present at all football games.

Activities during the year included a trip to Ohio State University to observe a band practice and football game, a Christmas concert at Woodside, and an exchange concert with the North Lima High School Band. The Canfield Band received an excellent or II rating in district competition.

The band's activities were concluded with the presentation of the annual spring concert held on May 14 in the high school auditorium.

"My Fair Lady", presented by the high school music department, broke existing attendance records on March 26 and 27. Under the direction of Mrs. Sheila Unruh, Mrs. Lisa Germaine, and Mrs. James Wilhide, the chorus and part of the band, directed by Mr. Paul Rossi, portrayed the story of a London gutter-snipe converted to a prim and proper lady. Kerry Sue Blunt and Liz Diggles, double-cast as Eliza Doolittle, and Russel Ensign, portraying Professor Henry Higgins, had the lead roles in the delightful musical.

High School Choruses

Preparing numbers for the Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter assemblies, baccalaureate, and commencement keeps both the high school and junior choruses busy. The high school chorus, in addition to putting on the spring musical, also sent thirty of its members to area club meetings to entertain and to Marge Mariner's television show. Performances by these students show the end result of long hours and hard work.

The purpose of athletic participation is not only to develop physical qualities, but also to promote sportsmanship and competition. The participants involved in both team and individual play gain physically as well as mentally. Sports promote team and school spirit and benefit both the participating individual and the watching community.

The Canfield High School Fighting Cardinals football team completed another winning season this year, with a 5-3 record. The Cardinals fought disease and injuries early in the season to win five straight games after losing their first two, and finished out the season by losing a close game to Warren John F. Kennedy High School. Under the head coach Jack Peterson and assistant coaches Gale Rhinehart, Ben Bruno and Garret LeVan, the Cards held their foes to

Under the direction of Coach Ben Bruno, the 1964 Fighting Freshman Football Team compiled a fine 6-1 record.

The team started practice late in the season; however, by their first game they were shaping up well and Coach Bruno was "pleasantly surprised" with their progress. The Freshmen won their first six games, defeating Jackson-Milton, West Branch, Poland, Sebring, Leetonia and Frank Ohl, but lost the final season game to East Palestine.

With this valuable Freshman experience, many of these boys are expected to contribute greatly to the varsity and reserve team next year.

the leading rebounder by grabbing 185. Season highlights were the wins over Champion, Poland, and North Lima. In a hard fought battle, the Cards also held high scoring Fitch to a 32-23 win. The most valuable player as elected by his teammates was Ray Alcott. Along with him, four seniors, Jim Cashon, Tim Dove, Bud Glaeser, and Tom Page, will graduate this spring. Six varsity men, Gary Eckenrode, Rick Moses, Carson Stewart, Bill Popio, Greg Rochow, and Roy Denny, are returning.

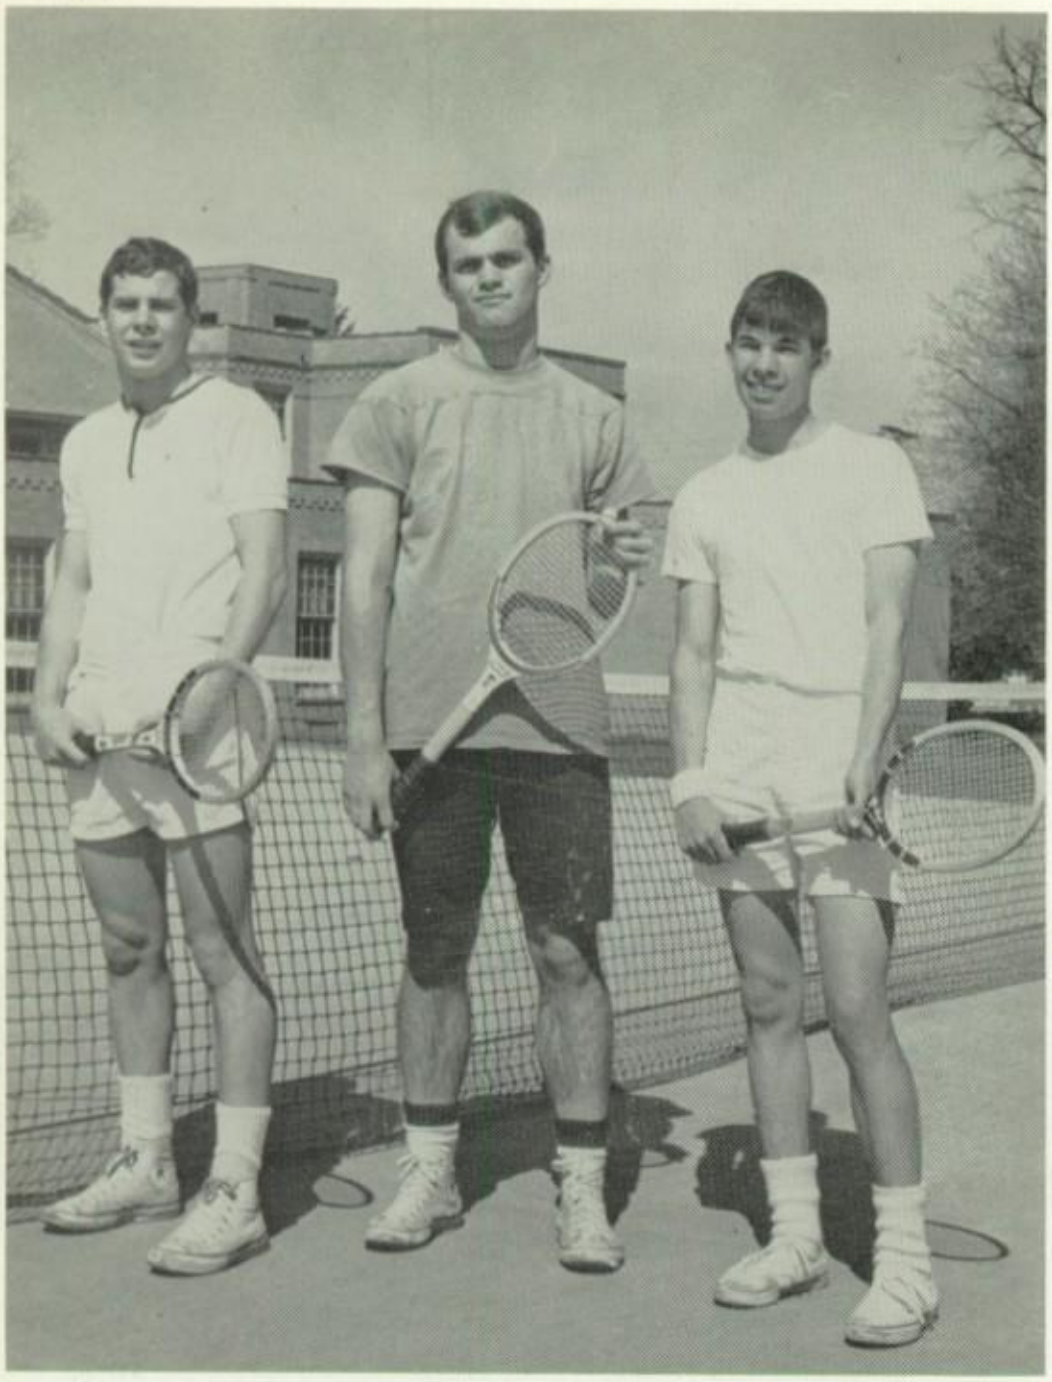
camp where they learned new straight-arm cheers.

The Varsity Cheerleaders stimulated pep and enthusiasm both on and off the floor. Practicing two nights a week, the girls planned and organized all pep assemblies.

For the first time, CHS Cheerleaders attended summer camp. A week of daily practice and sore muscles earned the girls third place honors in final camp competition. Returning with many new cheers, skits, and pom-pon routines, the girls' performance showed the results of many long hours of practice.



This year's tennis team was again coached by Mr. William Lester. The team wound up with a record of 4-7. Highlights of the season were victories over such schools as Youngstown South, Poland High School, and Youngstown Chaney.

The team is losing three seniors, but still has a strong nucleus for next year. The three seniors are Bud Glaeser, Ray Alcott, and Ron Williams. Six players went to the district match. Of the regulars, five boys are returning to next year's squad, including Chris Kessler, a freshman who was undefeated in individual play for the year.

Golf Team Boasts Four Junior Lettermen

The golf team this year was coached by Mr. Garrett LeVan. This year's team had four lettermen. All four were juniors, and there were no seniors on this year's team. Therefore, next year's team is expected to be excellent. The four lettermen are: Gary Bowden, Rick Moses, Bill Popio, and Greg Russell. The fifth regular player was freshman Rick Cashon.

Thinclads Three

Once again the track team was coached by Mr. Jack Peterson. The team broke three school records. The half-mile relay team, composed of George Diggles, Dave Evans, Tom Cummings, and Gary Kabetso, broke the old record. Gary Kabetso broke Dave Evans' old record mark in the 220. Paul McKnight also cracked the mark for the low hurdles.

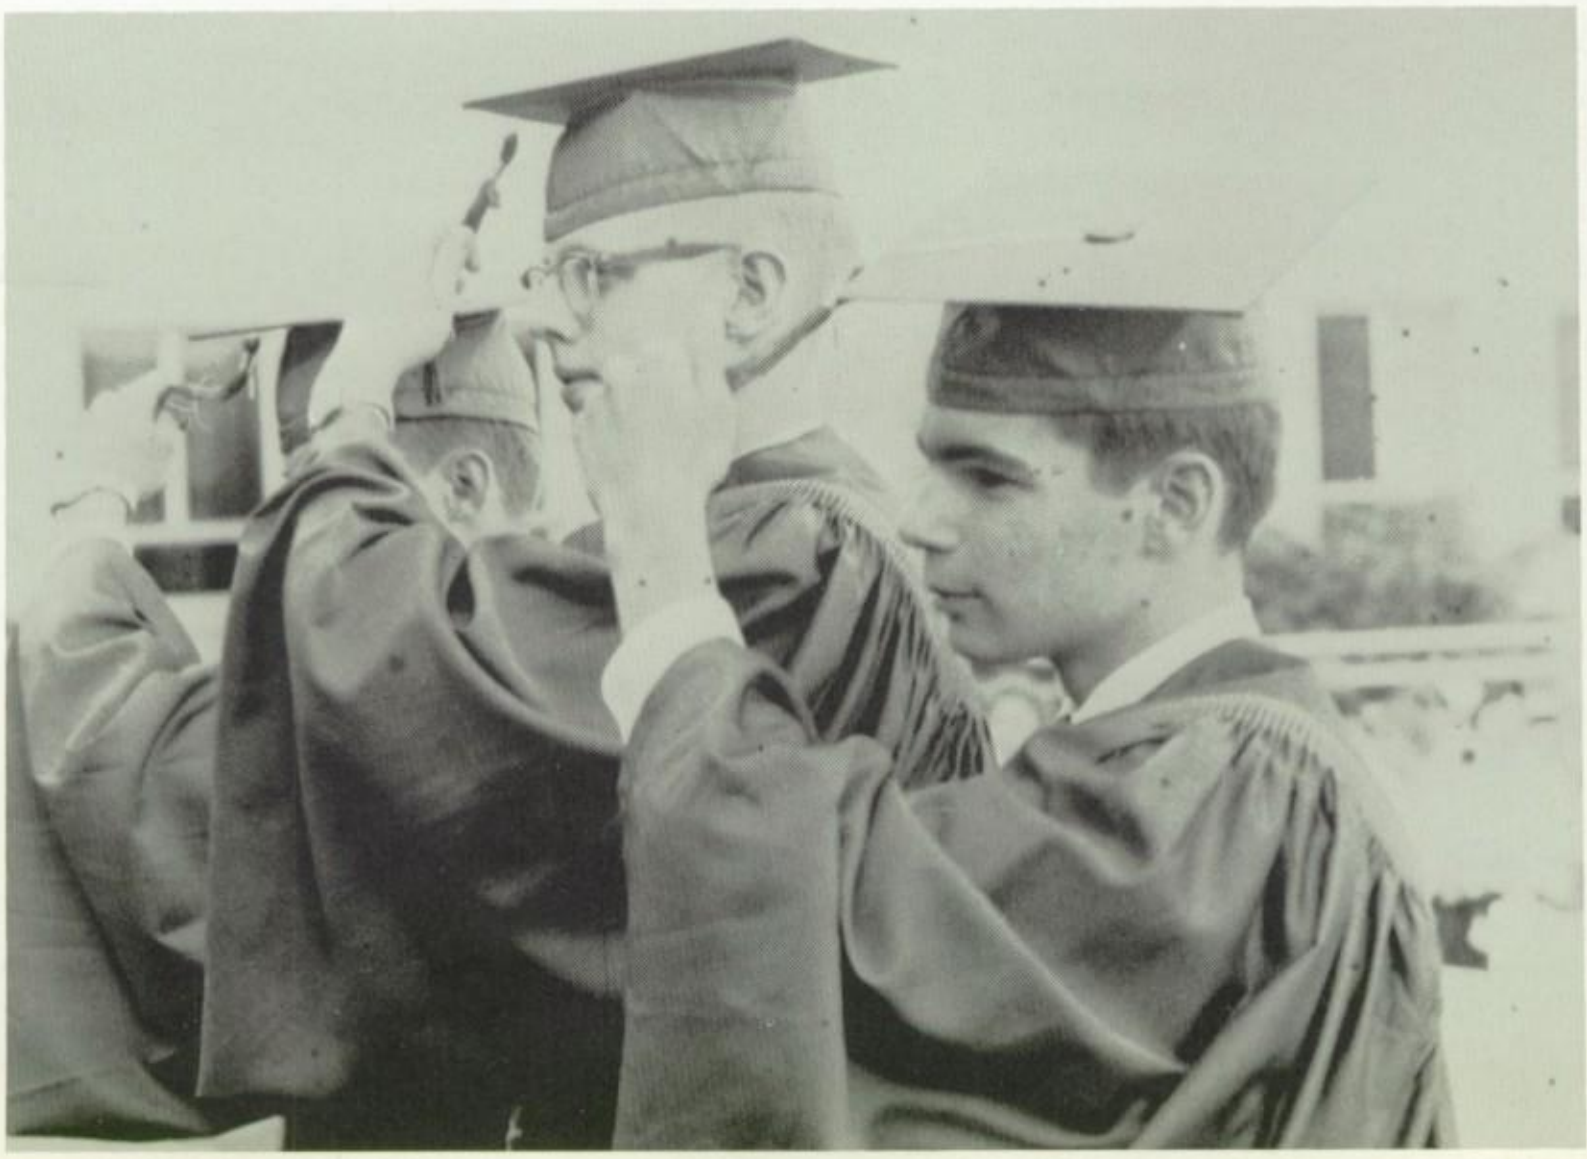
For the year the team did very well, defeating such teams as Brookfield, Columbiana, and McDonald. Dave Evans was voted as most valuable player by his teammates.

The life of a high school senior is one of lunch-line priority, receiving respect when walking into assemblies and knowing you are in the category that hopes to achieve.

But being a senior is more than this. It is the last step before major responsibility, the last year to achieve basic knowledge before being thrown into a world of confusion.

The senior year, climaxed by commencement, puts the finishing touches on a student before sending him out to face the world.



Happiness can mean many things,
But to a senior
It brings special
Thoughts to mind . . .

Happiness is . . .

Having everyone stand up
for you,
Watching a game,
Dancing . . .

Being measured for
senior caps and gowns,
Being a senior at the junior-senior prom,
Sitting under a big tree,
Toast, scrambled eggs,
and potatoes.

Happiness is . . .
Knowing you're not as dumb as you thought you were,
The end of the day,
Cleaning out your
locker for good,
A senior in spite of the fact.

Gym Transformed into "Alpine Paradise" for Junior-Senior Prom

For one evening on May 8 the high school gym was transformed into an "Alpine Paradise" for the 1965 Junior-Senior prom. Couples danced to the music of Mike Roncone in the midst of hanging icicles, a rustic water wheel, wooden bridge, Swiss chalet and background murals of the Swiss Alps. Shades of green crepe paper added to the romantic atmosphere, as did the white picket fence and rows of red geraniums. A buffet supper was served at midnight while the Billy Erhardt dancers supplied the entertainment to bring to a close the "Alpine Paradise."

Throughout the sequence of the play, murder does take place, and when the murderer is finally disclosed, to the surprise of the audience the detective, Sergeant Trotter, is pronounced guilty.

Senior Scholarship Team and Honor Students Maintain High Standing

Thirty-one seniors qualified for honor student by the accumulation of forty-nine grade points. During the last weeks of school they did not have to report to any study hall, but rather enjoyed the privileges of "campus freedom". These students were recognized at graduation by the wearing of a gold cord, the symbol of their long hours of work and achievement.

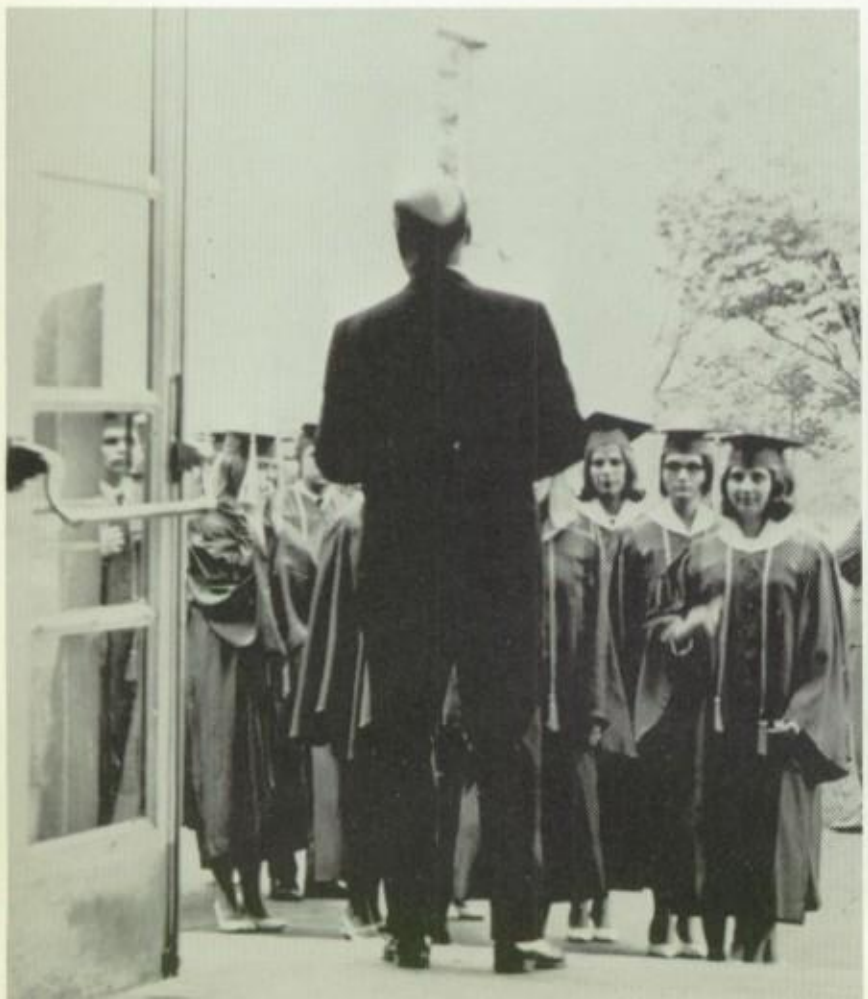
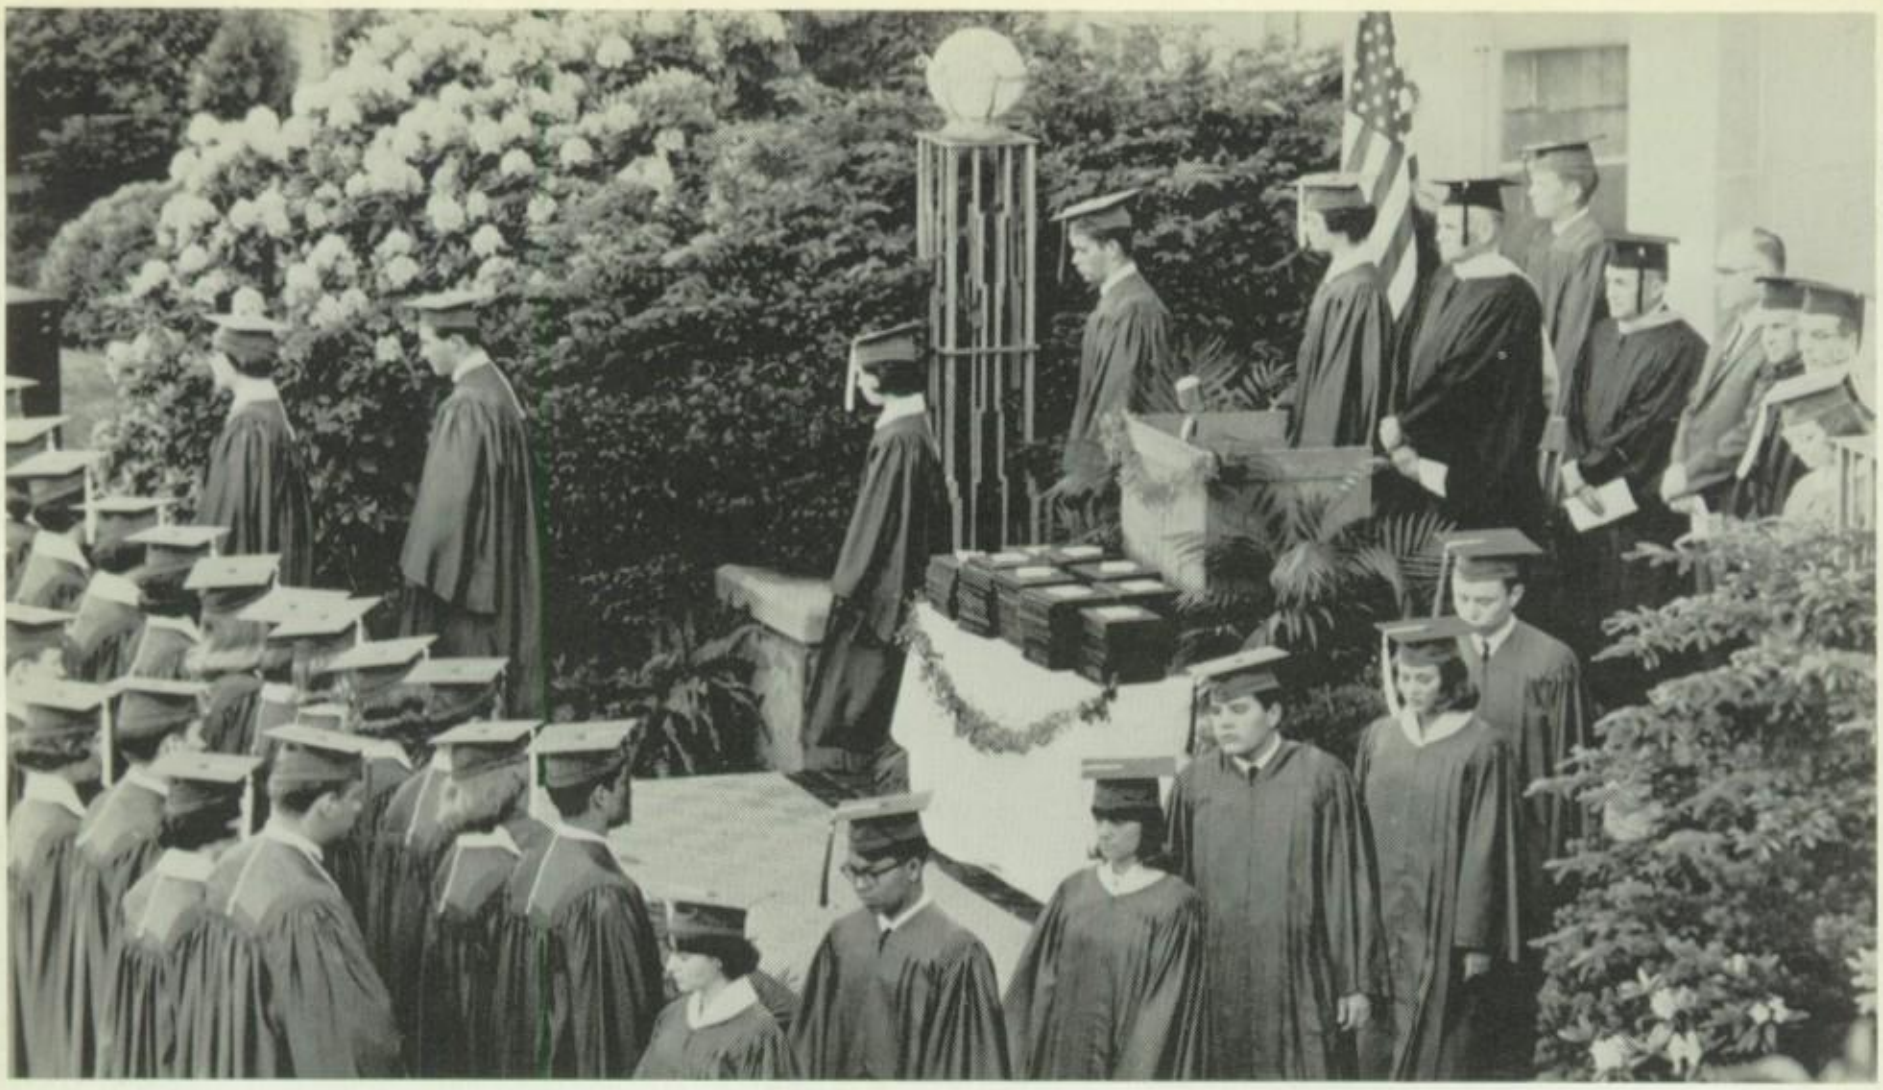
Baccalaureate Message Inspires Seniors

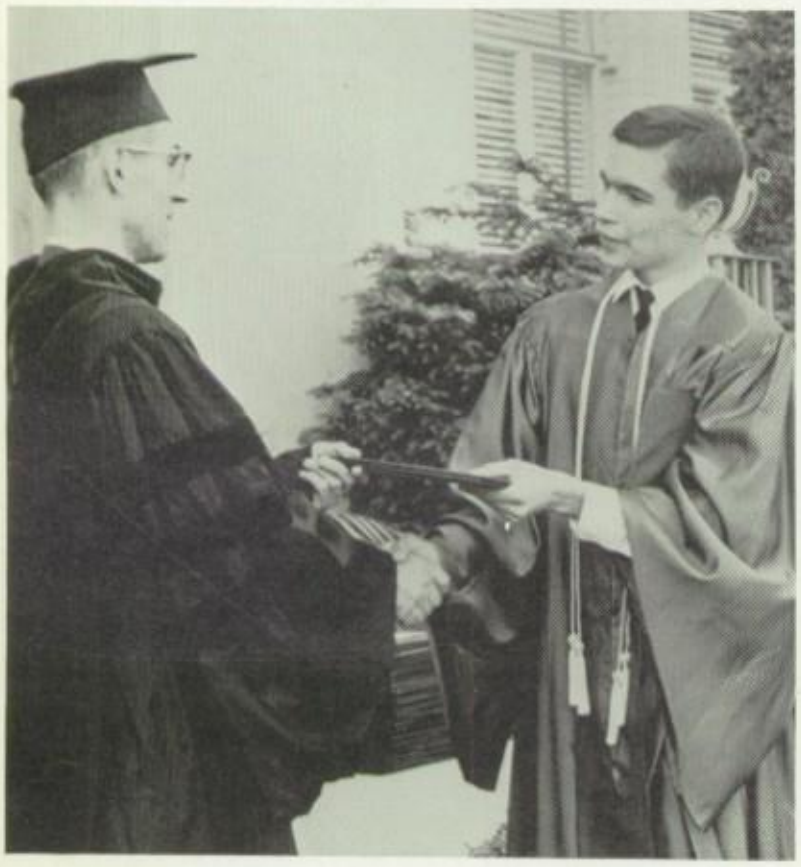
Assembling on Sunday, May 23, the Class of 1965 witnessed the annual baccalaureate service. Father Hugh Gallagher of St. Micheal's Catholic Church and Rev. Charles Fulcomer of the United Presbyterian Church gave the invocation and benediction, respectively. The address was delivered by Rev. Gerald Swanson and the high school chorus sang "The Last Words of David."





Commencement Marks the Ending Yet Also a New Beginning

Assembling for the last time as a class, the students graduating in 1965 attended the commencement exercises. After Rev. Alonzo Wise of the Christian Church gave the invocation the A Cappella choir added to the mood of the ceremony by singing "You'll Never Walk Alone". Kerry Sue Blunt then spoke representing the class. Giving the address "The Last Candle" was Dr. Jack Schreiber, a former Canfield graduate who practices locally and is a nationally renowned speaker. Mr. C. M. Johnson, superintendent, presented the awards, Mr. Donald Bishop, assistant principal, presented the class and Dr. Clyde Walter awarded the diplomas to the graduating class. After the completion of the last assembly of the class, the graduating students filed out into their own individual worlds, each remembering that his life as a high school student was over.



It's a world to be lived in for another great year!
